

Livelihood Promotion Division SFRTI, Raipur

Forest Based Livelihood

Presented By
Kiran Kashyap (JRF)
Abhishek Maitry (SRF)

MANDATE

- 1.Promote and management of NTFP with help of sustainable livelihood.
- 2.Studies of changes in the depending pattern of tribal and dwelling communities on forest area.
- 3.Documentation of medicinal plants and collected forest product of various NTFPs .
- 4.Study on the forest based handicraft activities & dependency of artisans.
- 5.Identify the forest-based natural resource & their social economic importance.
- 6.Promoting Entrepreneurial Activities.
- 7.Community- based development.
- 8.Monitoring and Evaluation of livelihood programs to assess their impact.
- 9.Encourage the involvement of local communities in silviculture & forest management activities.
- 10.Study the Functioning of the Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) and rural development programmes across the States.
- 11.Training programmes forest department, NGOs, stakeholder.

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
1.	SFRI Jabalpur	Studies of changes in the pattern of dependence of tribal and other forest-dwelling communities on forests . Studies on the role of various tree species in the religion-cultural practices of tribal and other forest-dwelling communities.	Dr. Ganga Sharan Mishra 9425384810, 7000943819 mishrags66@gmail.com	Studies of changes in the pattern of dependence of tribal and other forest-dwelling communities on forests . Studies on the role of various tree species in the religion-cultural practices of tribal and other forest-dwelling communities of C.G.

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
2.	Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur	Social and livelihood analysis of the dependence of tribal people on forests.	Dr.Nanita Berry (Head of Division) 7612840627 berryn@icfre.org	Social and livelihood analysis of the dependence of tribal people on forests in different districts in Chhattisgarh state.
		Documentation of traditional knowledge on ethno-medicinal uses from tribal herbal healers (vaidyas, ojhas & guniyas) in central Madhya Pradesh.	Dr. Vijendra Nath (2005-2008)	Documentation of traditional knowledge on ethnomedicinal uses from tribal herbal healers (vaidyas, ojhas & guniyas).
		Evaluation of management system & level of Community Participaction under Joint Forest Management(JFM)	Shri. S.D.Sonkar (Silviculture) (2004-2008)	Encouraging Community Participation(Through Awareness program,Capacity Building,Community Based Project,Demonstration Plots etc )

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
3.	Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi	Conservation of medicinal plants through commercial cultivation and value addition by Joint Forest Management Committees/panchayats and farmers in eastern Himalaya and its socio-economic impact.	Sh. Sanjeev Bhatia Scientist-B (2008-2012)
4.	Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat	Resource enhancement and processing of Cane and bamboo suitable for handicrafts.	Dr.K.G.Prasad (2000-2002)	Resource enhancement and processing of Cane and bamboo suitable for handicrafts of Chhattisgarh state.

S.No	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
5.	Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat	1. Ecological assessment of medicinal plants in Nambor Reserve Forests and their socio-economic impact on fringe villagers. 2. Studies on the traditional knowledge of medicinal plants used by the Nepali community in Assam and identification of important species for chemical analysis. 3. Evaluation of forest fruits for their nutritional value and development of value-added products for economic enhancement of the local people. 4. Documentation of the traditional ecological knowledge (TEK) and quantification of medicinal plants used by the Karbi tribe of Karbi Anglong hill district of Assam.	Shri. Alok Yadaw (2008-2011) Dr. D.K. Meena, Sci-B (2013-2016) Dr. S.C. Biswas, Scientist-B (2014-2017) Dr. K.N. Baruah, (2018-2021)	Documentation of Traditional Tribal Medicines practice by the different healing practice Tribes of (Gonda, Baiga, Halbaa, Muriya, Kamar) Chhattisgarh state. Documentation of the traditional ecological knowledge (TEK) and quantification of medicinal plants used by the tribal group of Chhattisgarh state.

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
6.	Kerala Forest Research Institute, Peechi, Thrissur	Socio-economic and ecological aspects of developing bamboo resources in homesteads of Kerala. Rural institutions for the development of appropriate forestry enterprises: A case study of the traditional reed industry in Kerala State, India. Ecological and social importance of conservation of sacred groves in Kerala.	Dr. CTS Nair, Muraleedharan

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
7.	Gujarat Forest Research Centre, Rajpipla, Gujarat	Socio-economic impact assessment of selected Forestry Programme in Tribal Districts of Gujarat. Socio-economic impact and contribution of the forestry sector in the village.

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
8.	Centre for Social Forestry and Eco-Rehabilitation, Prayagraj	To study the marketing mechanism of commercially important medicinal plants in selected districts of Eastern Uttar Pradesh. Socio economic Impact study on mining and mining policies on Livelihoods of the local population in the Vindhyan Region of U.P	Dr.B.K.Pandey

S.No.	Institution Name	Review of related research work	Prominent Scientist	Possible research topic for SFRTI
9.	Kerala Forest Research Institute, Peechi, Thrissur (KSCSTE KFRI)	Socio-economic and ecological aspects of developing bamboo resources in homesteads of Kerala. Rural institutions for the development of appropriate forestry enterprises: A case study of the traditional reed industry in Kerala State, India. Ecological and social importance of conservation of sacred groves in Kerala.	Dr.CTS Nair Muraleedharan

Thank you